

playwire® REVENUE INTELLIGENCE

AMPLIFIES AD REVENUE

Demand more revenue on every impression.

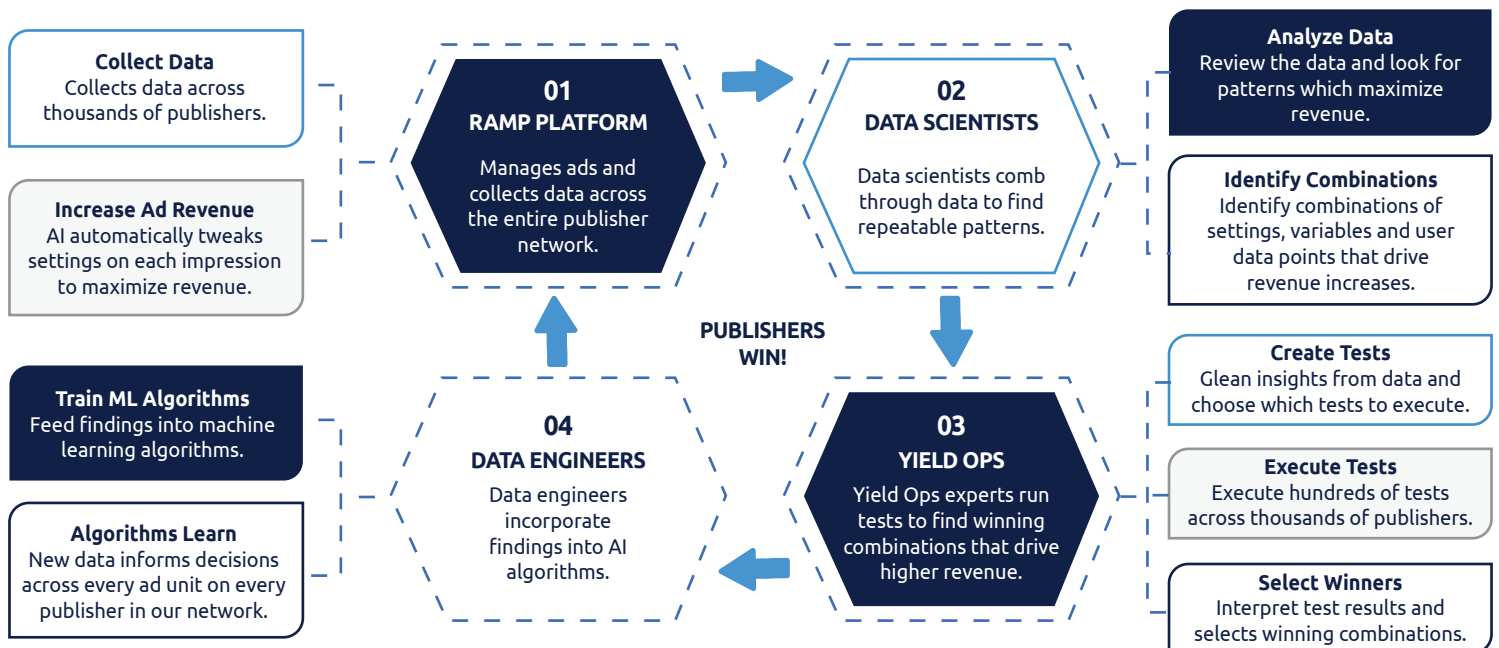

WHAT IS REVENUE INTELLIGENCE

Don't just optimize your ad revenue. Amplify it.

RAMP's proprietary Revenue Intelligence algorithm brings the best of human and machine intelligence together for one simple reason: to increase your yield.

THE {RI} REVENUE INTELLIGENCE ENGINE

The intersection of human and machine intelligence.

{RI} IS ALL ABOUT TESTING

YIELD EXPERIMENTATION. AT SCALE.

TRACK USER DATA POINTS

There are thousands of different user data points you can track, including:

- + Interests
- + Bounce rates
- + Session duration
- + Click rates

CAPTURE EFFECTS OF VARIABLES

Multiplied by hundreds of different variables that can affect ad revenue and placements, including:

- + Refresh count
- + Browser
- + Device type
- + Geographic location

ADJUST SETTINGS

Multiplied yet again by hundreds of settings that can be tweaked in each individual tool within the tech stack, like:

- + Price floors
- + Refresh rates
- + Timeouts
- + Bidder order and participation

{RI} FINDS THE WINNERS

FOR YOU

Using the power of AI and Machine Learning, Revenue Intelligence algorithms mine the data to come up with optimal combinations of settings to tweak on each and every impression to maximize your CPMs.
